GARDEN EXPERIENCE

Climate-Controlled Domes of Discovery

Inspired by the delicate design of a butterfly's head, our climate-controlled domes house species from Asia and the Americas. A bridge connects both worlds over a serene oasis with waterfalls and ponds — perfect for peaceful encounters with nature.

- Asian Dome — Eastern wildlife & ecosystems
- American Dome — biodiversity of the Americas
- A living bridge over waterfalls & ponds

Engineered for a Living Tropical Climate

Each dome is a fully climate-controlled ecosystem, engineered to sustain a stable tropical environment year-round — regardless of the season outside.

1

Geodesic Glass Architecture

Inspired by the delicate structure of a butterfly's head, triangulated glass panels maximize natural light while forming a resilient, transparent canopy.

2

Climate & Humidity Control

Integrated systems regulate temperature and humidity around the clock, recreating the warm, humid conditions tropical wildlife need to thrive.

3

Year-Round Tropical Environment

Even through Abu Dhabi's peak summer heat, the domes hold a consistent tropical climate — keeping 10,000+ butterflies and dozens of species healthy year-round.
