

REUNITING WITH CHILDHOOD

Remember the time of our childhood when our most important decision was simply which dessert to choose? Relive that joy through our desserts inspired by those carefree times - a delightful mix of old-school favorites, some playful new twists and the experience of tropical Nanyang Chinese ingredients like fragrant pandan leaf.

London's Classic Toffee Banana 78

A classic Chinese restaurant favourite.

'Chocolate Does Grow on Trees' 🌸 94

Valrhona chocolate fondant, sesame macaroon 'caps', hazelnuts, praline ice-cream, chestnut paste. "From a dream one night of a mythical forest where chocolate grows from the ground and where vegetables, fruit and all things healthy grow no larger than the tiniest sprigs."

Pandan 'Sponge', Coconut, Sago Pearls 58

The fragrant pandan leaf is Nanyang 'vanilla', a favourite flavouring of the region. Pandan cake & sago pearls, salted coconut macaroon & ice-cream

'Songbird's Secret Garden' 72
